Testimony pertaining to the quality of Coils Australia Pty Ltd

Our company, Allstaff Airconditioning NSW has used Coils Australia on a number of major projects. Most recently they supplied the heating water coils and chilled water coils associated with the $26 million mechanical service package on Liverpool Hospital Redevelopment in Sydney NSW.

We find Coils Australia to be professional and competent in engineering, pricing and communication in relating to the products they supply. Coils Australia has excellent product knowledge and consistently adheres to production time and delivery schedules.
